TOURISM

A tourist visa allows foreign nationals who intend to travel for tourism purposes to enter Italy and other Schengen Area countries for a short period of time.

In the case of an invitation from an Italian citizen or a foreign national legally residing in Italy, a "declaration of invitation" must be presented, in which the inviter certifies their willingness to provide hospitality in Italy to the visa applicant.

For minors or students traveling with their parents: a certificate of school enrollment, a birth certificate, and, if applicable, authorization from the other parent.

For minors or students traveling with third parties: a certificate of school enrollment, a birth certificate, authorization from the parents or their legal guardians, and documentation proving the parents' financial resources.
